AHK Romania is organizing the #3 International Court of Arbitration Annual Conference, where we are glad to invite you. Just like the previous editions, this one proposes to offer valuable information about the role of arbitration in the daily business. New this year will be the introduction of another format, consisting in a hearing of an arbitral tribunal, which will focus on typical issues of arbitration proceedings like independence, validity of the arbitral clause, expert witness testimony, settlement initiatives by the court. Moreover, in the second part of the Conference, the speakers will focus on the perspective of young arbitrators. You will receive the event agenda as a follow-up.
