

Legal framework and procedures for granting financial compensation to third country nationals - victims of human trafficking

Training seminar

11-12 June 2020

Online access Zoom Platform <https://zoom.us/>

Event organizer: Center for the Study of Democracy Bulgaria, in partnership with Association Pro Refugiu Romania and Centre for European Constitutional Law Greece

11 June 2020

13.50	Login by participants to check audio and video connection
14.00	Welcome Speeches Dr Maria Yordanova, senior fellow, Law Program, Center for the Study of Democracy Yordan Yordanov, attorney, Chair of Management Board, Krastyu Tzonchev Attorneys Training Centre
14.15	Third country nationals and an EU Member State's legal system – cross-points and challenges Dilyana Giteva, attorney
15.00	Q&A session, insights from other EU Member States Moderators: Dilyana Giteva, attorney Dr Maria Yordanova, senior fellow, Law Program, Center for the Study of Democracy
15.30	Comfort break
15.45	ECtHR case law on compensating pecuniary damages of trafficking; civil claims by trafficking victims in Bulgaria Natasha Dobрева, attorney
16.30	Q&A session, insights from other EU Member States Moderators: Natasha Dobрева, attorney Miriana Ilcheva, senior analyst, Law Program, Center for the Study of Democracy
17.00	End of first day

12 June 2020

13.50	Login by participants to check audio and video connection
14.00	Financial compensation of victims of crime – EU and national legal framework Prof Dr Dobrinka Chankova, Professor of Criminal Procedure Law, Faculty of Law and History, Neofit Rilski South-West University, Chair, Institute of Conflict Resolution Challenges and barriers in granting financial compensation Elena Lazar, attorney, Romania
15.00	Q&A session, insights from other EU Member States

This training seminar was funded by the European Union's Justice Programme (2014-2020). Its contents represent the views of participants and the event organiser and are their sole responsibility. The European Commission does not accept any responsibility for use that may be made of the information it contains.

	Moderators: Prof Dr Dobrinka Chankova, Professor of Criminal Procedure Law, Faculty of Law and History, Neofit Rilski South-West University, Chair, Institute of Conflict Resolution Miriana Ilcheva, senior analyst, Law Program, Center for the Study of Democracy
15.30	Comfort break
15.45	Gender-related aspects of supporting and compensating victims of trafficking, including third country nationals Yordanka Bekirska, attorney
16.15	Challenges in identifying, supporting and compensating foreign victims of human trafficking Dobryana Petkova, acting secretary, National Commission for Combatting Trafficking in Human Beings
16.45	Training evaluation, final conclusions
17.00	End of second day

Co-organisers:

